Body Title: A Step Above Le Sports Sac, With That Kind of Cool

Text: You know how bright colors for handbags are so “popular” for spring? Matt & Nat vegan handbags, in colors such as Cypress Hill Mustard, Vicious Fuschia, Portman Blue, and Jade run from about $135 a pop. Their wallets start at about $45. And with laptop carriers and diaper bags in these colors, why should handbags get to have all the fun?

Each is inscribed with the brand’s “positivity message,” many have antique silver hardware and practical design features, which include detachable –key and –shoulder straps; all are made in Canada and made of vegan leather, Japanese paper, and canvass. <http://www.mattandnat.com/>
